2022-23 DPAC Report

MEETING SUMMARY

Monday, January 16, 2023

Long Range Facility Plan Engagement Updates presented by Secretary-Treasurer Russell Horswill

- Burnaby: The Facility Plan is approved every June and contemplates the population increase. The government will inform the plan in March.
- Consultation with partners and educational zones discussions will start by the end of January beginning of February 2023. On Wednesday, the District will email parents inviting them to engage. Open houses at the board will happen from 5 to 8 pm. Surveys. On February 22, the website will summarize the major themes.
- There will be no school closures. Potential boundary changes for other schools (Brentwood, Taylor Park, Stride) will include long-term conversations. Site considerations: Brentwood and Cameron: 2 studies. Same for Maywood.

Safe and Caring Schools Burnaby presented by SD41 Director of Instruction specializing in Safe and Caring Schools Burnaby, Nick Christofides

- The focus is on prevention. Progressive discipline is a strategy that encompasses engaging all the actors (families, staff, students) to help students learn from mistakes, develop skills, and prevent potential incidents.
 There are different tiers of intervention and support available. Teachers, administrators, and counsellors are the first to contact.
- Critical Incident Response Team: Includes counsellors, school team, and direct line with police if there is a community event. They provide support to students and teachers.
- Prevention and action includes discussing online habits/expectations with your kids, positive school and community connections, sleep habits, open communication, boundaries, and changes in friendships.
- DPAC Reps and other attendees agree on the District sending information at the beginning of the school year to know how to proceed if an incident occurs. The resources may include how to speak about different incidents and websites to learn more.

Breakout Session: Things the Reps want the presenter to address on the upcoming Emergency Preparedness and Response meeting in February

- Responsibilities of the District and PAC regarding funding to buy supplies and equipment. The steps to get reimbursed
- How does the District prepare for other emergencies (e.g., floods, heat domes) and major threats (lockdowns)?
- Students with special needs.
- The process of collecting children.
- Access to list of supplies.
- The District Cohesive plan, and the District staff liaison.

DPAC Updates

- List of emails: Old one is no longer on. Principals provide the names of the PAC's Reps. Please inform changes.
- Feb meeting: Moving to in-person (probably a hybrid). Location: Burnaby Central Multipurpose room.
- Committees: No reports.

Q&A

- The principal does not need to check PAC's bank statements.
- Late applications for funds: Keep trying, phone them, and explain the situation. You can email the DPAC. Treasurer: alfredromann@gmail.com, and also check with BCCPAC if needed.
- Traffic safety: There's a trustee that should bring up the concerns. There are expanded speed zones in Burnaby.

Clinton DPAC Rep left at 8:49pm, missed Show & Tell segment of meeting.

January 6th, 2023

Dear Clinton Community,

This letter is being written on behalf of Ms. Am Bains (PAC) and myself as an opening welcome back to the New Year. We are so fortunate to be working in a thoughtful and caring community. Saying that, we continue to work at making this a hub to the surrounding community.

As we move into this New Year, we are reaching out to let you know that we are hoping that more parents will engage with the school to bring it a larger sense of community to all of us. Ms. Bains is actively seeking help from parents for various school activities such as movie night, games night, Fun Fair, evening parent educational event, afterschool programming for students and other community building events. We hope that you take on the challenge of helping with one or even part of an event, so we can all have opportunities to build a thriving community over the next little while.

If you are able to help then please reach out to Ms. Bains at clintonpac.sd41@gmail.com or one of the other PAC executives to become part of the school planning and Programming. Attending the PAC meetings that alternate month to month from daytime to evenings is another great way to offer ideas and get to know other parents and what is really going on at school. The next meeting is January 18th @ 5:30 PM in the Library at Clinton.

Finally, we want to wish you all a prosperous and joyful New Year and hopefully we can bring back some vibrant engagement to our Clinton Community all the while being safe and caring about the safety and health of everyone.

Take Care.

Sincerely,

Claudio Bortolussi & Am Bains

LITERACY WEEK AND BEYOND!

- Ideas shared and planned by Joanne, Pam, Michelle G and Amanda H

The theme would be: What Are The Possibilities of Looking In A Book with the notion that text does not just come in the form of a book and the understanding that literacy encompasses much more than just reading. Focus on both fiction/non-fiction

PAC may also consider participating, in some way, from Family Literacy Day - Family Day

The dates: Monday, January 23 - Friday, January 27 (Family Literacy Day)

Monday, January 23 – Literacy Week Kick Off

Door Décor – teachers can already have doors dressed up like the pages of a book or create the door décor this week (illustrations one side, text the other, or non-fiction facts, text boxes, graphics, or title pages or like Room 12 with "Warm Up To A Good Book") Morning Announcements: Division 10 recites "Look In A Book" and the welcome announcement for the literacy week is shared followed by a staff member sharing a "literacy" story of their own.

It's also "Say Nice Words" weeks and the books "What Are Words Really" will be highlighted

Recess announcements/1:00 announcements – staff sharing a "literacy" moment/book/inspiration and student DJ's sharing a few reading facts related to "Literacy and the difference between Fiction and Non Fiction books

Tuesday, January 24 - Dress Up As A Book Character

Students/staff come to school as a book character D.J's share information about "Your Brain On Books" and the benefits of reading Staff, perhaps, share the character that they chose to be and why.

Wednesday, January 25 - Drop Everything And Read

Scheduled time 1:00 but classes can choose the time that works best for them Also, Wacky Word Wednesday and the possibilities of looking in a Joke Book with some jokes shared over the P.A

Thursday, January 26 - Reading In The Dark - in the gym at 9:45

Mrs. E. will give up her P.E. time so other classes do not miss out on trestle tree or P.E. Classes will make their way to the gym with flashlights, headlamps and their books. (Stuffies/blankets?) Classes will be assigned corners of the gym to sit and silently read in the dark until recess which may need to be delayed slightly.

Morning DJ's will share the meaning of the Great Clinton Book Flood through the means of introducing the story "The Great Christmas Book Flood", a story that takes place in Iceland and rings true today. This will lead to the Reading In the Dark.

Friday, January 27 - Family Literacy Day and beyond...

The meaning behind the purpose of the literacy week and family literacy day will be shared with the focus of The Great Clinton Book Flood continuing

The family focus will connect to the showing and sharing of how literacy is explored at home and ideas shared with families as how they can continue to read at home up to Family Day weekend and beyond

For Clinton School, the flood of reading and writing will continue with (suggested ideas)

February – Story Time shared by a different staff member/teacher in classrooms – Guest

Reader Day

March - Reading Train

April - Poetry Month - Poem In your Pocket or...

May – Reading Outside At the Garden – Throughout the day, classes will go outside to read at the outdoor classroom/garden

June – Grade 7's highlight their favourite book from their elementary years – photo taken of the grade 7 reading the book and posted on a bulletin board

September – Teacher photos posted on bulletin board with favourite book or where staff member likes to read and a few that may be "Guess The Reader" pix

Throughout the months, this may be when Teacher DJ's may be able to share their connection to reading or memorable stories that inspired them instead of having stories shared only throughout the Literacy Week.
